

Panel on an Integrated System of Household Income, Wealth, and Consumption Data and Statistics to Inform Policy and Research
Meeting 5 Agenda, Virtual Public Meeting
Tuesday, July 12, 2022, 11:30am – 5:00 pm ET

ZOOM: <https://nasem.zoom.us/j/99775099940?pwd=aVluRVNtZHZTc0JQay9wUERucHhZz09>

Meeting ID: 997 7509 9940; Password: 616628

- 11:30am Welcome, plan for meeting
 - Tim Smeeding, Chair
- 11:35am Strengths and Limitations of Tax Data for Distributional Estimates (moderator, Amy O'Hara)
 - The Population in Tax Data, Jeff Larrimore (Federal Reserve Board)
 - Income in Tax Data, Jacob Mortenson (Joint Committee on Taxation)
 - Missing Income, Transfers, and Taxes: Strengths and Limitations of Tax Data, David Splinter (Joint Committee on Taxation)
- 12:20pm Comments from SOI
 - Barry Johnson (Statistics of Income, IRS)
- 12:30pm Panel Discussion
- 1:00pm Break (60 min)
- 2:00pm Possibilities of Linking Census Surveys and Administrative Data (moderator, John Sabelhaus)
 - The Comprehensive Income Dataset Project: Using Linked Data to Improve Income and Consumption Measurement, Bruce Meyer (University of Chicago)
 - National Experimental Well-being Statistics, Jon Rothbaum (Census Bureau)
- 2:45pm Panel Discussion
- 3:30pm Break
- 3:40pm Tax data, synthetic data, and wealth estimates (moderator, Karen Dynan)
 - Synthetic Data and Validation Server: Safely Expanding Research Access to Sensitive Data, Rob McClelland (Urban Institute)
 - Panel Discussion
 - The Role of External Data in Capitalized Wealth Estimates, Eric Zwick (University of Chicago)
 - Panel Discussion
- 5:00pm Adjourn