

Committee on Population

CPOP Study on Global Forced Migration and U.S. Resettlement Trends, Outcomes, and Policy Impacts

Meeting 5
Monday, June 9, 2025
Noon – 4 p.m. (ET)

Meeting Goals

During the open session of this meeting, we will hear from John Slocum (RCUSA), who has vast experience on migration and refugee resettlement issues, and whose organization has recently embarked on several important refugee integration and resettlement projects.

PUBLIC AGENDA

Open Session; noon – 1 p.m.

12:00 p.m.

Welcome; Meeting Plan

Mary Waters and David FitzGerald (committee co-chairs)

12:10 p.m.

Discussion with John Slocum, Executive Director, Refugee Council USA

Overview and discussion of: (1) the Institutional Knowledge project, a quick-turnaround effort to capture still-fresh working memories of operational details of the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program from staff, State Refugee Coordinators, community sponsors, etc.; (2) IRISE, a refugee integration self-assessment project involving partner practitioners from the US, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand; and (3) thoughts on what a future resettlement program architecture might look like.

1:00 p.m.

Adjourn Open Session

Committee and Staff Move into Closed Session

4:00 p.m.

Meeting Adjournment